

English for speakers of other languages (ESOL)

New for 2010

English for speakers of other languages (ESOL)

ES0005
Course length: 1 year

Increase your English language skills in a modern and supportive environment.

NEW

This full-time course is suitable for young people whose native language is not English. You will study English language, speaking, listening, reading and writing.

You will be studying for a nationally-recognised qualification and will be required to take the Cambridge Skills for Life exams. This course will equip you for going into employment or further studies.

Course content

The core units are:

- English
- Maths
- ICT

You will also be able to choose from a number of options which include: employability skills, customer service, business administration and citizenship.

Entry requirements

There are no specific entry requirements. You will be interviewed and take a placement test to assess your level of English. You will then study at a level which is right for you. All offers are subject to eligibility and fee status.

After the course is finished

You could do further studies in ESOL, another full-time course or go into employment.

